Agreeable to the vote passed at the last annual meeting leaving the matter of necessary improvements in cemeteries to the selectmen, we beg leave to submit the following report.

At the South Cemetery we found an unsightly corner next to the road and requiring fencing to comply with the law passed at the last session of the General Court. After consulting with those interested, we did the best, in our judgment, we could (with the amount of money we felt we could expend,) in putting in a new wall, grading the bank, filling the drive ways, to make the new lots available, marking with granite blocks twelve new lots at the west end and forty at the east end, and would recommend the lots be appraised and held for disposal as in other cemeteries. We also had a new plan made of the yard and names inserted on same as far as could be obtained showing place of burial.

At the Village Cemetery, the Avenue leading from the highway to the top of the hill was hardpanned and two stone culverts put in, and the avenue straightened and continued to the west end of the yard; the cross avenues were straightened and lots laid out and marked with small granite blocks to the number of one hundred and thirty four. The yard had a general cleaning up and rubbish burned and the front fence painted.

At the Vale End Cemetery we found on the Benjamin Baker lot a number of quite large pine trees which was not only detrimental to this particular lot, but was also doing damage to adjoining lots and after obtaining permission from the nearest living relative to Mr. Baker, to remove the trees, they were cleared away and the lot graded under the direction of Mr. Jacob Putnam to whom much credit is due for the manner in which the work was done, and the fact that no charge was made for the service. This cemetery was also cleared up and rubbish burned.

Engineers' Report Fire Department.

FELLOW CITIZENS :—

We have two alarms of fire to report this year. March 15th the dwelling of Mr. George M. Hartshorn together with barn and ell valued at $4,000 were totally consumed. Insured $2,650. Insurance paid, $2,650. Contents valued at $2,000, damaged $2,000. Insured, $350, insurance paid, $300. Origin of fire unknown. These buildings consisted of a two story house 22x32, one story ell 18x20, hen house 14x20, and barn 36x74 all connected. Owing to the distance and delay in getting the alarm, the department did not get there in time to be of any service. May 12—15 fire on sprout land of Messrs. Whiting on Greenville, road 20 or 25 acres burned over. Put out by neighborhood without an alarm. July 5th the wooden tenement house of Mr. A. J. Putnam was partly burned. Insured, for $1,000, damaged $175. Insurance paid, $150. Origin of fire unknown. As is generally the case in the excitement at a fire there is more or less talk among the citizens over the management and judgment or lack of judgment (as the case may be) on the part of the engineers. Criticisms were not lacking in this instance but upon an examination of the premises by an unprejudiced person, knowing the headway the fire had gained and with what was had to do with, no one will say but the department did most excellent and effective work in stopping the fire where they did. There are several lengths of hose that are not wholly reliable. The Board recommend the purchase of 300 feet of 2 1-2 inch rubber lined hose for the use of No. 2, and the disposal of what is unservicable. No. 2 can be fixed at a small expense so as to use the same size hose as No. 1. The department has had a great deal of trouble with two sizes of hose. We really hope the change will be made. The force pump is so delicate a subject we refrain from making any remarks for fear of their misconstruction and a "volcanic outburst" on our devoted heads the result. The board earnestly recommend a survey for a gravity service. The expense of such survey would not exceed ten dollars and we shall then know how much head we have. Both engines have been new leathered and are in perfect condition. The hose with few exceptions is in good condition. Much credit is due the men for the interest they have taken in their respective companies and the engineers take this opportunity to thank the members of No. 2, and the citizens for the cordial reception of No. 1, on their return from Nashua in October last. In closing this report we find no words more fitting than those of Robert B. "It is by our works and not by our words we would be judged." These we hope will sustain us in the humble position we have held.

Respectfully submitted,

Miss Martha A. Putnam, Librarian.

The Library contained 1836 volumes, March 1, 1891—during the year it has gained by purchase 367 vols.; gifts from individuals, 69; from the Ladies' Reading Club, 16; representing a cash value of $15.11; exchanged for "History of Wilton", 3; and 25 bound copies of periodicals, making the whole number at present 2316 volumes.

In placing these before the public, the Library has been open 99 days, and 6415 books and periodicals given out to 541 holders of cards; 813 vols. have been recovered during the year. The following is our magazine list: Atlantic, Book-buyer, Century, Chautauquan, Cosmopolitan, Harpers, New England, N. A. Review, Popular Science Monthly, St. Nicholas, Scribners, Woman's Journal, Home Market Bulletin, and Traveller's Record, the last two being gifts from the publishers.

A fine portrait of the late Miss Persis Barrett, who for so many years was our faithful librarian, has been presented to the library by Mr. F. E. Bugbee, to whom we extend our thanks.

Although our citizens, when they change their citizenship, carry Wilton civilization to other towns and cities, yet in their prosperity, not all forget the old home as shown by the generous gift by Mrs. Francis Greene of $200 as a memorial of her late husband and son. Mrs. Green has an intense love for children, and in her zeal for their welfare, she could see no way in which she could assist them so much in their preparation for the duties of life, as by placing before them the wisdom of the ages—good reading; for the town and for the library we hereby extend to her in this public manner, our most sincere thanks.

Our general cash fund now amounts to about $2000 plus the Arthur H. Burns' fund of $125.

We consider our library a success—in its help to the teachers in their noble work—to the children in their studies, as well as to those of maturer years, and, although it might once have been a luxury, we feel it now, to be a necessity, and so with thanks to all who have aided the library in any way, and with the faith that the town fully appreciate its work, and will do it justice, we submit our report.

George Whiting, Treasurer, in account with Wilton Public Library.

LAS CASAS BARNES, TOWN CLERK.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION,

FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 1, 1892.

In compliance with the requirements of the law, we herewith submit our annual report of the public schools, supplementing the same, in accordance with a time-honored custom, perhaps more honored in the breach than in the observance, with such comments and suggestions as may seem to us pertinent. If thereby scholars are stimulated to greater zeal and industry, teachers encouraged to exercise their best abilities, and parents brought into a closer sympathy with the school life of their children, then indeed the object aimed at will have been attained.

At the annual meeting of the district held March 24, 1891, Mrs. Jennie F. Barnes was re-elected a member of the Board of Education for the term of three years. The board was subsequently organized by the selection of Mr. Bales as chairman and Mrs. Barnes as secretary and treasurer.

A little more than two and a half centuries ago the poet Milton said "a complete and generous education fits a man to perform justly, skillfully and magnanimously, all the offices, both public and private, of peace and war." What a comprehensive definition of the purpose of education! To the ambitious student the grand plan of education which is recognized and adopted in our country affords every encouragement. While there may be a recognized aristocracy of wealth, so exclusive that few may hope to attain it, and whose results are barren of great happiness ; there is a higher and a nobler aristocracy, that of intellect and culture, to which the humblest worker is eligible, and whose rich blessings continue a source of inexhaustible pleasure to the possessor and whose influence upon others will extend throughout unending ages.

Parents should expect and require strict accountability for the expenditure of the public money, but they should count no sacrifice too great to be made in the interest of their children. We should not lose sight of the fact that no possible investment yields so large dividends, the payment of which is so well guaranteed as the money expended in the education of our youth.

We see in our sons the coming voters and in our girls the mothers of the next generation of sovereign citizens and that policy which governs our schools will presently control the government of the nation. It is therefore essential that the great principles of industry, honesty and temperance, indeed all the virtues which are the ornaments of society should be deeply impressed upon the hearts and minds of the youth in whose hands the destiny of the nation is placed.

TEACHERS.

The home should be the model school, next to its influence stands the influence which emanates from the public school. Every teacher has a grand opportunity to make indelible impressions upon the minds of those placed under their instruction. No position is more exacting than that of teacher, none requiring greater tact, patience or more natural adaptation. In view of these facts it is the duty of school committees to give to the teacher their best counsel and in every possible case their entire support.

Teaching is beginning to be recognized as a profession, and and as in other professions a course of special training is required, so in teaching, the necessity for such preparation is becoming more apparent. We should not expect any greater degree of perfection in teachers than in any other class of people. As a general rule how are our judgments formed in regard to the qualifications of teachers? Alas, too frequently parents obtain their ideas from the children. As a rule children are incompetent to judge of the merits or demerits of those who instruct them, and no parent ought to base his judgment on the mere evidence of children, whose minds are not yet properly developed to determine what is for their best interest. Parents rarely rely upon the judgment of their children in other matters to the same extent as in school affairs. Shall we not accord to the teachers of our children the same privilege in presenting their work to public observation that we would desire to have done for that of our own? Parents visit the school room yourselves, then you can more correctly judge whether the teachers are earnest and faithful and devoted to the interests of those committed to their care.

FREE TEXT BOOKS.

Another era in the line of advancement has dawned upon the school interests of the state. The enactment of the free text book law, which has been almost unanimously approved by the educators of the state, has now been in force a sufficient time to enable us to judge of its value. We believe this legislation was wise and recognize the many advantages derived under the law. The expenditure the first year of its application was large, this year we have been able to materially reduce the sum and believe that a much smaller amount would be required next year. We are of the opinion that this law will commend itself even more strongly as its benefits become more apparent, which we are confident will result from a continuance of the law.

GRADED SCHOOLS.

It has been evident for some time that the course of study prescribed for the village schools was in some respects difficult. At considerable labor the course has been carefully revised and is herewith presented. The most marked departure is the addition of a year's work to the high school course. We think this change will meet with general approval. The course as now arranged is more comprehensive and the standard of the school has been advanced. As graduation in many instances marks the close of school life it is essential that our scholars should enjoy the largest possible opportunities. There are present all the requisites, save one, of a high school worthy the town of Wilton. And there seems to be rather a poor site for the one thing lacking.

Owing to the change in the course of study there will not be a class to graduate this year.

The following is the course of study subject to such changes as experience may determine to be necessary.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

The school buildings outside the village are in fair condition. Several, however, need painting and some minor repairs are necessary. But the immediate necessity for the erection of a suitable school house at the village is too apparent to need argument. It seemed not only wise but absolutely necessary that the interior of the school rooms should receive some attention. Accordingly a small sum of money has been expended in this direction. But citizens of Wilton, the plain facts of the case are these. The buildings are in very bad condition, poorly constructed, lighted and heated, with practically no ventilation aside from doors and windows, and accommodations entirely inadequate for the number of scholars. Doubtless injury to the health of the pupils has resulted from these defects.

We are convinced that the annual cry of "next year" must cease to catch the unwary, and the wrong, for such it is, must at once be righted. As we value the health, the comfort and the happiness of our children, let us give earnest and thoughtful attention to this matter. The present buildings are a reproach to the town. Wilton abreast of the times in all other respects must not be found wanting in a matter of such concern as the education of her youth.

GENERAL REMARKS.

The opening of a second primary department has relieved the over-crowded condition of the lower grade. We believe that much better work is being accomplished and the health and comfort of the pupils greatly improved. This arrangement must be of a permanent nature.

We are pleased to acknowledge our appreciation of the good work generally performed by the teachers in the several schools. The question of wages is a minor consideration, when the retention of good teachers is involved. Our teachers as a rule have approached their work, sensible of its important obligations and have discharged their duties with becoming zeal.

Some much needed changes have been made in the law compelling the attendance of children of school age upon the sessions of the public school. These provisions will be printed and the public made acquainted with its requirements. It may be proper to state that the coming year the board will require a more strict conformity to the law.

Corporal punishment has been rarely resorted to during the year. In fact it has ceased to be regarded as a proper means of punishment except as it may be inflicted upon our neighbor's children. There have been some exhibitions of lawlessness in the destruction of property in and about the school buildings, which is hardly indicative of a right sentiment among the youth. We look for a reform in this direction during the coming year.

The idea of inculcating patriotic principles in the minds of public school pupils seems to be assuming a proper importance. The founders of our public schools recognized in our school system, one of the safe-guards of the nation. All nations strive to instill their subjects with a love for their flag and through it, with a devotion to their country for the blessings it confers, of which the national flag is an emblem. To cultivate this spirit of patriotism which is an essential of good citizenship, we should study carefully our nation's history. A knowledge of the hardships endured by those prominent in the early history of our country, will inspire us with a greater respect and veneration for the founders of the republic. Let flags be raised above the school buildings of our country, let the youth catch the true spirit of love of liberty, then the constitution and highest interests of the country will never lack defenders.

ATTENDANCE.

In accordance with the returns made by the selectmen in April, 1891, of children between five and fifteen years of age, there was 292 of school age. The whole number enrolled in the registers is 310, of whom 138 are boys, and 172 are girls. The registers also show that there are none under five years of age, and 49 over fifteen years of age. The whole number, as appears, from the school registers, who attended school the past year, the average attendance, and number of weeks of school appears in the following table. The prevailing sickness has greatly affected the attendance.

In conclusion we would emphasize the importance of our public schools, for they are the crowning glory of our land. Free to all, they diffuse their inestimable blessings among the rich and poor alike. Let this grand institution have our fostering care. Let us give generously and freely for its support, that our children may reap its advantages, and thereby become fitted for the high and responsible duties of life, the noble, honorable calling of true citizenship.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. E. BALES, Chairman.
